One day training on

“Safety Induction and Accident Reduction in Industries”

Organized by

National Centre for Quality Management, Mumbai

Perspective
Many Accidents happen in Industries and we do not pay much attention to that resulting in loss of production and demoralization of employees. In order to overcome this problem it is better to be trained on this subject of accident reduction, which will not only induct safety but will also help in reducing accidents, achieving cost reduction and avoid legal complications. “Safety Culture in any industry is one of the important requirements to reach the level of “WORLD CLASS”. Advantages of Workshop To reduce no. of Accidents, To improve Productivity, To reduce cost, To improve morale of employees, To meet social obligations, Avoiding legal complications
